OFFICER IS FREED OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY CHARGE

Ada Night Policeman Is Acquitted by Jury in Justice Court.

"We the jury find the defendant not guilty, and recommend that he use more discretion in the future with his six-shooter."

The above verdict was rendered by a jury of six men in Justice H. J. Brown's court Thursday afternoon after listening to the testimony in the case of state vs. Frank Palmore, charged with assault and battery.

Palmore is a night watch on the Ada police force, and was made defendant in this case when Bert Greer filed a complaint charging that Palmore, without sufficient provocation, struck him on the head several times with his pistol Christmas eve night.

The state contended that the acts of the defendant were unlawful, and amounted to assault and battery on the person of Greer, while the officer insisted that he used only such force as was necessary to place Greer in the city jail, and struck him only after Greer had struck him a stunning blow in the face.

A number of witnesses testified for each side and most of the afternoon was taken up by the trial. The evidence showed that Palmore and Ed Stewart arrested Greer the evening of December 24, at the request of Ben Baldwin. The reason for the arrest was not made known at the trial, and the officer did not tell Greer what he was being arrested for.

Several witnesses testified that Greer used some pretty strong language and offered to whip Palmore if he would lay down his gun when the arrest was made in front of Shaw's store. According to the evidence, the two men conducted Greer to the door of the city jail. He protested against being placed in jail and said that he could put up bond.

All of the witnesses who were present at the jail testified that Greer pulled back from the door as the two men tried to place him in the jail. Several of the witnesses testified that Greer struck Palmore in the face with his fist and said with an oath that there were not enough policemen in Ada to put him in jail. It was then that Palmore struck him on the head with the butt-end of his pistol.

One witness testified that Greer fell the first time that Palmore struck him with his gun and that the officer continued to hit him after he had fallen. Other witnesses testified, as did Palmore, that Greer did not fall but hit him the fifth time.

Dr. Faust told of dressing Greer's wounds. His examination of the injured man found a bruise over the left ear and four contused places on the back of the head, which had apparently been caused by a hard, blunt instrument. The doctor said that Greer had been laid up about ten days or two weeks by his injuries.

The attorneys for the state asked the jury to assess the maximum penalty of a $100 fine and thirty days in jail, while counsel for the defense asked for his acquittal with a verdict of not guilty. The verdict rendered by the jury, which is quoted in the opening paragraph, would indicate that the jury were of the opinion that there is a chance for improvement in the manner the officer handles his weapon.

The jury was composed of Joe E. Biles (foreman); C. E. Cunningham, T. E. Vaughan, Joe E. Sloan, Wm. Edmonson and W. L. McKinney.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING AT DURANT

(Special to the News)

DURANT, Jan. 21.—Announcement has been made to the effect that a one day institute for Christian Endeavor workers and their friends of the Coal district will be held at Durant, Okla., on January 28, 1921. The work will be conducted by Stanley B. Vandersal of Boston, alumni superintendent of the United Society of the Christian Endeavor, and Jack Cecil, associate secretary of the southwestern federation.

This will be a great event for the C. E. work this year as national characters such as have been obtained are very seldom, able to give their personal efforts to the district work. The purpose of the institute is to enlighten the members of the C. E. in the ways and means of doing their work, as well as to put before them new ideas and suggestions that will assist them.

A program has been arranged by which the work begins at 3:30 and continues until that night. All members of this organization who are interested, are wanted and a cordial invitation is extended to them all.

CLARA SMITH'S ATTORNEY BACK FROM MEXICO

(By the Associated Press)

EAGLE PASS, Texas, Jan. 21.—J. H. Mathers of Ardmore, Oklahoma, attorney for Clara Smith Hamon, passed through Eagle Pass last night enroute home from Chihuahua City, Mexico, where he said he obtained certificates of record in the woman's case. He added that the defense would be ready in March when the trial is called and that he was confident his client would be acquitted of responsibility for the death of Jake L. Hamon when facts are placed before a jury.

FARMERS TO MEET HERE SATURDAY

Representative of Oklahoma
Cotton Growers' Ass'n.
Will Be at Meeting.

A meeting will be held at the court house Saturday afternoon, January 22, at which time a representative of the Oklahoma Cotton Growers' association will explain the plans of that association in its efforts to secure for the farmers more money for their cotton.

The meeting has been well advertised over the county, and it is expected that a large crowd will attend. Each of local farm organizations of the county have been requested to have delegates on hand to hear the discussion and it is thought that the membership of the various organizations represented will make some definite stand with reference to joining the association. Representatives of the Oklahoma A. & M. college have held a number of meetings in Pontotoc county recently, explaining the proposed work of the association, and endorsing its plan, but this is to be the first meeting in this county attended by a representative of the association.

It has been explained that the Oklahoma Cotton Growers' association is being formed for the one purpose of selling the cotton of its members co-operatively, through its own specialized marketing expert, securing for its members the best possible returns for their labor.

It is strictly a cotton selling organization, and no one but a cotton farmer or a person who receives cotton as a rental from lands may become a member. No cotton buyer is eligible to membership.

It is the plan of the organizers to secure thirty thousand members, representing a total of not less than three hundred thousand bales of cotton by May 1, this year. A number of counties of the state have already been visited by organizers, and the membership now totals several thousand. Reports from other counties where the representatives of the association have worked indicate that the active farmers of the state are very enthusiastic and join the association readily.

Committees Will Complete Their Drive By Feb. 1

The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to conduct the recent membership campaign, announce that they will, before February 1, complete their canvas by seeing the persons who were passed up during the recent drive, and urge them to join the organization.

The committee explain that several persons could not be reached by the active drive was on, and they will go back over the territory again so that no one will be slighted. It is thought that approximately one hundred additional members will be secured in this campaign.

Already the membership is larger than at any previous time in the history of the organization, and the members are taking more than the usual interest in the affairs of the organization. The year has been started out of debt, and with a substantial amount in the treasury.

Walker Will Leave Saturday To Confer With Railroad Heads

O. N. Walker, secretary of the Ada Chamber of Commerce, will leave for St. Louis Saturday morning to take up with officials of the Katy and Frisco roads the matter of extending without further delay the industrial track, north of the city. He will return by Topeka where he will confer with officials of the Santa Fe on the same matter.

The three companies have agreed to work jointly in completing the track from the glass factory to the fair grounds, but for some reason the work has been delayed. The operation of the Ada Alfalfa Milling company is being delayed because the track has not been extended to its plant, and Mr. Walker will endeavor to lay before the railroad men the extreme necessity of prompt action in the matter.

Mrs. O. D. Wright of Francis was a shopper in the city yesterday afternoon.

RELIEF STATION WHERE STARVING CHINESE RECEIVE FOOD

Relief station in stricken China and some of the "bread line." This photograph, which just arrived in this country, shows a few of the starving Chinese receiving food at one of the relief stations where 15,000,000 persons are said to be starving to death because of famine. Ten thousand are dying daily, according to cable dispatches from China.

MAKING MERRY OVER 'JOKERS'

Committees Make Reports on Important Measures
Before Houses.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 21.—An aftermath of yesterday's "preliminary comedy" in the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature came up at today's session in the form of a resolution introduced by Murray Gibbons, democrat of McClain county. The measure would amend the house rule so as to provide that when any member desired to make a point of order or arose on a point of order, he should be recognized by the speaker and immediately answered whether or not his point was well taken. The resolution, characterized as another "joker," would repeal all rules in conflict with the proposed amendment.

The committee on banks and banking reported out unfavorably House Bill No. 47, providing that banks and trust companies publish lists of unclaimed deposits. The committee report on salaries of house employees was adopted with amendments.

House bill providing for payment of school district taxes and for the maintenance and erection of municipal playgrounds, were reported by the committee on education with the recommendation that they be passed. An unfavorable report was made by the same committee on a bill that would establish a state school commission. A minority report was filed recommending that the bill be passed.

An open conference was held by the appropriation committee of the state senate on the senate bill sponsored by senate and house committees on agriculture, providing for a creation of a state warehouse system at a cost of $2,500,000. Later the appropriation committee reported the measure favorably to the senate.

Still, it isn't much harder for a rich man to get into heaven than for the stork to get into the rich man's house.

Local Contractor Will Build Brick School Building

C. R. Gagnon, well known brick contractor of this city, has been granted the permit to construct a $15,000 school house at Limestone Gap, Okla., and will begin work on it at once.

Mr. Gagnon will take active part in the construction of the building and therefore will be away from this city most of the time until it is completed. The building will be a great improvement to the school facilities of Limestone Gap.

New Trial Refused.

204 Indictments At Muskogee by U.S. Grand Jury

One Held For Oil Scheme
Fraud, Four for Freight Thefts.

MUSKOGEE, Jan. 21.—The United States grand jury adjourned today after returning 204 indictments, making a total of 228 for the ten days the jurors were in session. T. A. King of Kansas City, arrested in New Orleans, was indicted on a charge of defrauding a number of people in an oil development scheme. According to postal authorities he obtained approximately $50,000.

John T. McIntyre, John Tucker, William Hess and Jack King of Salpala, were indicted on a charge of robbing interstate freight shipments. Government officials blame them for losses approximating $25,000.

Cloudy tonight, colder; Saturday probably fair. Colder.

Packs Up His Troubles in Old Kit Bag Harding to Put Dull Care Aside and Enjoy Vacation

On Board President-elect

Harding's Train, Jan. 21.—With his troubles packed in a kit bag that he intends to keep tightly locked for at least two weeks, President-elect Harding turned his thoughts to golf sticks and fishing rods today as he journeyed southward for a vacation in Florida.

The association of nations, tax reforms, the choice of a cabinet and all the other topics that have been keeping long hours with him during the last six weeks in Marion, are to be put as far away from his mind as possible, until he had had a good rest. His Marion conferences frequently have kept him busy from early morning until late at night and the strain and lack of exercise have told materially on his physical condition.

Not once since his return from Panama early in December has he been able to visit his favorite play ground, the golf links. Walking has been his only recreation, and he has found little time even for that.

The fishing trip down the eastern shore of Florida is to occupy the first two weeks of his stay in the south. It is his hope to be completely isolated from observation during the period, though he may venture forth once or twice to play golf. Early in February he will take up his residence at a St. Augustine hotel, where he will remain until just before his inauguration.

DISARMAMENT TO RELIEVE TAXATION

People Crying For Agreement
Between Nations
To Reduce Burden.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Staggering burdens of taxation resulting from the world war have caused the people of all nations to favor a world agreement on disarmament. Henry White, former ambassador to France and a member of the American peace commission to Paris, declared today before the house naval committee which is holding hearings on this subject.

"I think the world is crying for some agreement," said Mr. White, "but I do not favor the United States being the only nation to disarm."

The United States, he added, should take the initiative in the disarmament movement and the conference should be held in this country. Any gathering looking to a general disarmament should include France and Italy, as well as the United States, Great Britain and Japan. White said, but discussions looking to a reduction of naval building only should be limited, for the present at least, to Great Britain, Japan and the United States.

"I think it would result in chaos if all nations of the world were to be represented at the proposed conference," said Mr. White.

"Would not general disarmament open the way to bolshevism throughout Europe?" asked Representative Britten, republican of Illinois.

"I think France might feel that way," said the witness. "The keeping of Germany in a state of chaos over reparation is opening the way to bolshevism more than any other factor right now in my opinion. The present condition of Germany makes bolshevism a menace."

WAR HERO KILLED BY FALLING TREE

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 20.—Wilbur Willis, 27, who in the world war passed unscathed through three great drives, including the Argonne campaign, was killed today at his home in Council Hills, Illinois, when a tree he chopped down fell on him.

INCOME TAX FORMS TO BE MAILED OUT

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Forms for filing income tax returns on income of $500 and less will be ready for distribution Monday, the bureau of internal revenue announced today. Copies will be sent to all persons who filed returns last year, the bureau stated, but failure to receive a copy will not relieve anyone from making a return by March 15. Distribution will be made by the various collectors of internal revenue.

TEACHERS GET BETTER WAGES

Baltimore Pays Teachers Larger Salaries Than Any Other City.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 20.—With an increase of $600 per year to the average teacher Baltimore is shown to lead the list of American cities in amount of salary advances to be granted to public school workers during the past year, according to a survey of the national educational situation just completed by the better schools service, a bureau of the American Federation of Teachers.

This bureau has been compiling statistics, and reports here since the teacher shortage became acute. Philadelphia is shown to bring up the rear of all cities, its increase being only from $50 to $120 per year.

The average increase for cities of more than 100,000 population is listed at $365 per year, for cities of between 50,000 and 100,000 three hundred and thirty-two dollars in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, three hundred and seventy-one dollars.

"Reports from all over the country show that the general advance in salaries still leaves teachers more inadequately paid than previous to 1914," said William T. McCoy, director of the survey in making the first findings public.

"Teachers are still at the bottom of skilled workers in the wage scale," he added. "The measures of relief have been palliative only. They may have checked momentarily the disintegration of the public school system of this country but they have not arrested it. All reports show that there must be fundamental changes in the policy of financing education before schools are safe from current deterioration. Normal school enrollment over the nation is the barometer of the educational system. This barometer is now very low. Even the Baltimore increase is reported by Maryland educators to have been inadequate."

Among the larger American cities Louisville and Peoria ($500), rank next to Baltimore, with $500 each as the average annual increase. Chicago, Toledo, San Francisco and Kansas City take next place with $450 each. St. Louis, Oakland, Tacoma gave $420 apiece with Spokane close behind with $400. Boston, Los Angeles and Houston awarded a raise of $330, with Atlanta and Minneapolis $300 each. Indianapolis, Cleveland and Des Moines gave $200.

Of cities between 50,000 and 100,000 Terre Haute, Ind., leads with an average teacher advance of $450. Portland, Me., gave $400 and Gary, Ind., $360.

In the third group cities between 25,000 and 50,000 Montclair, N. J., tops the list with $500. Newton, Mass., being next with $450.

SOCIOLOGY E PERT TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

Professor Gilbert H. Smith of the department of sociology, Oklahoma State University, speaks in the Methodist church in Ada Sunday morning.

Mr. Smith has traveled from the Gulf to the Great Lakes in studying conditions at state universities. He claims that the greatest religious opportunity of today is in the state university. During the last year there were 1300 Methodist students in the university constituting more than half of the Methodist college in the south or southwest.

It will cost the church less money in a short time at the state university than anywhere else in Oklahoma. There are about one hundred students in the university preparing for the Christian ministry, missionary work, and deaconess work. These young people need the help of the church and it is in their behalf that Mr. Smith speaks on Sunday.

OPPOSING PARTIES UNABLE TO AGREE IN NORTHERN STATE

FARGO, N. D., Jan. 21.—Factional war between Nonpartisans and the Anti-Nonpartisans continues in the new legislature of North Dakota, where something like a balance of power exists.

The Nonpartisans control the senate by one vote while the Independents have a variable majority of on to five, in the house.

The only new activity in the message of Governor Frazier, Nonpartisan, is the operation of a state owned coal mine to provide coal for state use.

ALLEGED ROBBER ACCUSES DEPUTY OF KILLING MAN

Self-Confessed Hi-Jacker
Blames Another for Killing Man.

(By the Associated Press)

ATOKA, Jan. 21.—That M. H. Childers, a deputy sheriff, killed G. W. Bradley, Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway foreman, in the railway station at Caney, Okla., December 9, was the statement of Ivan Jeffries, accused of Bradley's death, when Jeffries testified in his own behalf in the district court. The case was expected to go to the jury at noon today.

Childers and Harry Young, who says he lives at Peoria, Ill., told the jury that Jeffries fired the shot that killed Bradley. Childers and Bradley attempted to arrest Young and Jeffries in the railway station on a charge of committing a number of holdups in this country and in a shooting that followed Bradley was killed.

Jeffries testified he met Young in Peoria early in December and that they conspired to engage in a series of holdups. He detailed six robberies he said they committed. Jeffries was apprehended at Henryetta several days after Bradley was killed.

CHEER UP BOYS, COLDEST WEATHER IS YET TO COME

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 21.—Coldest weather of the winter is still in the offing. Such is the information advanced by forecasters at the local weather bureau, who base their statement on state records which have been kept for 27 years.

Persons who believe there is little chance for any more cold weather don't know weather records, according to J. Pemberton Slaughter, meteorologist at the bureau. The average coldest week of an Oklahoma winter falls from January 29 to February 4, the records of 27 years show. The average minimum temperature during this 7-day period is 23.4 degrees above zero and the average maximum 45.7 degrees.

The state records also show that the lowest temperature on record in the state is checked up against February. It occurred on February 13, 1905, at Vinita, when the mercury registered 27 degrees below zero. The lowest temperature recorded in Oklahoma City during the 30 years records have been kept was 17 degrees below zero on February 12, 1890.

As these low record temperatures have never been duplicated, there is little chance of it ever being that cold again in Oklahoma, Mr. Slaughter asserted, as records for 20 years can be taken as indicative of the state's meteorological possibilities.

OKLAHOMA CITY TO PUSH DRIVE AGAINST VAGS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 21.—An unsolicited round of vagrants in Oklahoma City will be conducted by county officers in co-operation with city police, beginning February 1, it was announced here today by County Attorney Hughes. The drive will be made as a means of lessening crime, it was explained.

DENIES SHIP BOARD PAID HIS EXPENSES

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Chas. M. Schwab appeared before the Walsb congressional committee this morning and denied testimony given yesterday by Colonel Abadie, former comptroller of the United States shipping board, to the effect that Mr. Schwab's personal expenses for October, 1918, amounting to $260,000 were charged to the shipping board.

Mr. Schwab declared the statements "were absolutely unqualifiedly and maliciously false," and that he personally paid all of his own expenses during his term of office as director general of the Emergency Fleet corporation.

Mr. Schwab said that, although he was supposed to receive $1 a year salary, he did not even collect that and for his travels from shipyard to shipyard while at the head of the fleet corporation, he asserted he never received any compensation and did not want any.

Mr. Schwab admitted such a voucher as that charged by Colonel Abadie may have been paid to him, but declared it was not for the purposes claimed by Abadie and no part of it was charged to ship construction.

His acceptance of the position as head of the fleet corporation, he told the committee, was only at the urgent request of the chairman of the board and President Wilson.

Post-Civil War Prices Higher Than at Present

Trading Post Records Tell of Hard Times Endured.

VERDEN, Okla., Jan. 21.—For a few years after the civil war, prices on the frontier in some instances surpassed those prevailing at the present time, according to entries in an old ledger of the Shirley Trading House, Wichita Agency, from 1861 to 1868, disclosed by J. W. Shirley of Verden, son of Dr. H. F. Shirley, who established the post shortly before the war began.

The Shirley Trading House stood on a hill north of the Washita river, Grand county, looking toward the site of the present Kiowa Indian agency. The post was established by Dr. Shirley, the ledger declares, after he had escaped a massacre at the hands of the Comanche Indians at Waco, Tex., in 1853, and was at that time nearly 200 miles beyond the western boundary of the so-called "safety-zone."

Approximately 90 percent of the entries show individual purchases of buffalo robes, prices ranging from $6.50 a robe in 1861, to $10 in 1867 and $12.50 in 1868. Seven pounds of buckskin sold for $7.

Other entries show the following prices:

On June 18, 1861, Charles Elsen bought 10 pounds of tobacco for $10. A bag of flour weighing 112 pounds sold for $16.50. Five yards of feather cost $1, while sugar sold for 25 cents a pound. A can of peaches brought 75 cents and 21 loaves of bread sold for $11.02. A deck of cards cost 50 cents and 38 cents was paid for a half-dozen eggs. Bacon was the exception, however, selling for 10 and 22 cents a pound.

An entry was made January 9, 1861, charging C. E. Barnard, on account of Indian discharges from the state of Texas, with purchases totaling $1,400. The item appeared to involve, in some manner, the Texas Rangers. Another charge was made to "Confederate States," and to the account of Major L. D. Harris. The major purchased 40 buffalo robes, 25 pieces of castings, 5 large wash bottles, 5 quires of foot-scap paper and other incidentals. The bill totaled $368.50.

Mayway and Big Head, apparently Kiowa Indians, were probably married on April 2, 1862, for on that date the ledger entry shows gifts to them aggregating $857.50 in value. These included 19 dozen shawls, one dozen water buckets, 110 yards of bleached domestic, 38 pounds of tobacco, 60 cloth and plush caps, playing cards, ties and beads.

A bad wound, burn or cut should be cleansed of dirt or impurities and dressed with Liquid Borzone. It heals the flesh with marvelous speed. Price, 20c, 60c and $1.20. Sold by Hemler & Story.

PLEADS GUILTY AND NOMES FINE FOR HIS PENALTY

(By the Associated Press.)
ZION, Ill. Jan. 21.—Ole Olson is the most polite defendant who has ever appeared in the Zion Police court. Ole had transgressed the famous Zion Anti-Tobacco ordinance by selling tobacco and cigarettes on the sly.

Chief Becker had caught Ole selling cigarettes and tobacco to strangers. Ole pleaded guilty, and assumed the attitude of a transgressor who ought to get all that was coming to him.

"How do you plead?" asked Justice W. E. Schmalfuss.
"Guilty," came the response, "but, your honor," pleaded Olson in a plaintive way, "I recommend to the court that they fine me twenty-five dollars I violated the law and I might as well get what I deserve."

"Remember," said Chief Becker, "I am going to keep a close watch on you."

"Good morning, gentlemen!" said Ole, as he paid his fine and passed from the court.

In 4,799 grade crossing accidents which occurred to motorists in the United States, 1,232 persons were killed and 3,558 injured.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens
So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

GO TO THEATRE

The County Fair
Maurice Tourneur's picturization of "The County Fair" will be presented for two days at the Liberty theatre commencing today.

The story is founded upon the famous play of the same name in which Neil Burgess starred for many seasons all over the world. It is the typical study of New England rural life with a loveable spinster for its central character attaining its humor, excitement and character studies at a county fair and reaching its climax in a thrilling horse race where Cold Molasses runs for the fortunes and happiness of the story's protagonists. There are infinite sidelights and bucolic studies which lend it that simple appeal which is always so interesting in dramas native to the soil of New England.

Where the play was naturally limited upon the stage the picture version gains sweep and scope and intimacy of detail which is impossible to show under any other form of entertainment than that of the silver screen. It was these possibilities which Maurice Tourneur enlarged upon so successfully and this accounts for the present great vogue of the familiar story. It has been breaking records everywhere and is the outstanding screen hit of the season.

In addition to its natural appeals the story is presented with a cast noteworthy by the fact that at least three of the principals have been elevated to stardom in motion pictures since their work in this instance. These favorites are the famous freckle-faced kid of filmland, Wesley Barry; dainty Helen Jerome Eddy, noted for her work in girl parts and David Butler who has

BETTERING THE FARM BUSINESS.

Extraordinary difficulties require extraordinary solutions. Gambling blindly each year that the price he will receive for his crop will be right, the farmer has been up against an extraordinary difficulty in facing the uncertainty of what he is going to be paid in return for his product. This has been the problem of the cotton grower, not only of Pontotoc county, but of the whole south as well. In taking steps to market their cotton direct to the mills, the farmers of Oklahoma have undertaken an extraordinary cure for what has long been an extraordinary hindrance to their prosperity. Their plan eliminates the price manipulator and speculator, and gives the farmer a chance to get some of the grapes from his own vine.

The trouble has been due in the past to lack of co-operation among the farmers. Each planter has been too deeply engrossed with the farming end of his business to pay attention to the business end, with the result that someone else attended to fixing the price for his products. It is but natural that the farmer should care nothing about business. His hobby is farming, just like painting is the hobby of the artist. But even the artist must seek a buyer for his pictures or go to bed hungry in his humble attic.

The Oklahoma Cotton Growers' association is going to worry about the business end of the farm for the farmer insofar as marketing his product is concerned. It is going to class his cotton, store it in a safe warehouse, and later sell it direct to the mills instead of to one speculator, who in turn sells it to another, who sells it to someone else who sells it to the mill.

Instead, it's now going to be from the farm to the mill, with the farmer seeing his way clear ahead before he starts planting the seed for the crop. The Evening News gives the glad hand of welcome to the association, with the hope that it will grow and prosper until every farmer in the state is on a solid foundation. The Pontotoc County Farmers' union will make no mistake in becoming affiliated with the association.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND.

North Dakota, which, under irresponsible leadership, permitted itself to become the testing ground of that political upstart movement called the Non-Partisan League, is now reaping the whirlwind of its sowing. Among its experiments was a state-owned bank, and enthusiastic leaguers rushed to deposit their dollars, discrediting in large measure the national or regular state banks of the commonwealth. They are at present experiencing that sensation which arises from everything going out and nothing coming in, as unfortunately for the depositors, they are permitted to deposit all the money they can, but for the time being at least, they are unable to make withdrawals.

There is consolation in the thought that there are forty-seven other states in the union and that are now giving the opportunity to observe closely and then draw inferences. It is rather rough on North Dakota, but experience is always rough in its methods.

China makes some curious blunders—sending over thousands of pigtailed when the wail is for cocktails.

The next step in the progress of militant reform is an Anti-Everything league.

Enver Pasha, who has been ordered to leave Germany, does not dare to go home—or anywhere else.

Article 10 is getting kicked around almost as much as Champ Clark's houn' dawg.

Probably the worst thing about prohibition is that it makes a man spend money on his family that he might have spent on his friends.

Says M. Venizelos: "I believed the Greek people were following me, but I have made a mistake." The words sound familiar.

Confidently predicted that conditions in Russia will quiet down soon as the bolsheviks get the people all starved to death.

Those who said there would be no immigration to this country on account of prohibition evidently judged everyone by themselves.

Feeling exists among many motorists that if you are going to knock a man down, you should do it so thoroughly that he can't talk back.

Henry Ford's latest mission seems to be directed toward "getting the Jews out of responsible places before Christmas." Ford always makes a mess of things when he gets away from the shop—and sometimes when he sticks to the shop.

NOW THAT THIS FUND IS APPROPRIATED, WHY NOT DIVERT IT TO AID OUR NEGLECTED, DISABLED WORLD WAR VETERANS?

The Forum of the Press

Oklahoma News: Why not call them income tax blankety blanks.

Oklahoma News: As soon as a man buys an automobile he thinks a pedestrian is some kind of a nut.

Pawhuska Capital: There would be less wasteful talk in congress if there was some way of putting a tax on it.

Pawhuska Capital: There has been considerable talk about it, but not a single profiteer has been hanged in two years.

Durant Democrat: There is going to be a move to abolish the corporation commission. The legislature had better go a little easy. What's the remedy?

Muskogee Times-Democrat: If the three aerobauts had foreseen the quizzing they got from newspaper correspondents they would have stayed at Moose factory.

Shawnee News: Senator Robert L. Owen, who was given the vote of the Oklahoma delegation at the democratic national convention for the presidential nomination, is now engaged in distributing garden seed to his Oklahoma constituents.

Shawnee News: Judging by the disclosures in Dallas one is lead to believe that a large part of the robbery and banditry of the present period is done by local talent and not by professionals as in the days of yore.

Muskogee Times-Democrat: Far be it from us to assume to say what the city government ought to do but it does seem that just now the best community service it could offer would be an extra squad of active police to put the lid on the nightly robberies.

Vinita Journal: A Chicago councilman has solved the problem of keeping the other councilmen quiet while in session. He passed out candy suckers to them. Why not a bunch of candy-suckers for the members of the state legislature? This might keep them from talking, but something else is needed to keep them from tossing fool bills into the hopper.

Sleeps Any Old Way Now

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until eight years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. A fellow worker told me about Mays' Wonderful Remedy. After taking three doses I felt like a different man; before taking it I could not lie on my back nor right side. Now I can sleep any old way." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Undercapitalization an inefficient management are the pitfalls to be avoided in co-operative marketing organizations. Unless conditions have been carefully analyzed and the business venture bids fair to succeed it is best to "go slow."

AMERICAN LEGION HAS REMARKABLE GROWTH

(By the Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 20.—In the eighteen months of its existence in Oklahoma the American Legion has made a more remarkable growth than perhaps any other organization in the history of the state, according to the annual report of Josiah C. Chatfield, assistant department adjutant, who is in charge of state headquarters here, issued here late today.

The number of local posts in the state has nearly doubled in the year and the membership had quadrupled in the same period, according to the adjutant. At the beginning of 1920 there were 5,000 members in the state in 112 posts. On December 31, there were 211 posts with an average membership of 190 veterans each.

Discussing the growth of the organization, R. B. Fell of Ardmore, state commander, said that it has not been due to an organization campaign but rather to the service rendered its members by the legion. "We have had no paid organizers in the field," Fell said. "Our only paid official manages the state headquarters and maintains liaison with the local units."

In the past year the Legion has investigated hospital conditions in Texas which resulted in closing several institutions and bettering treatment given in others. It has just completed a survey of hospitals in the state and is arranging for weekly personal visits to every man who is sick in a hospital in Oklahoma.

"We are working hard for a modern state hospital for treatment of Oklahoma men at home."

"The Legion has helped settle hundreds of claims of former service men against the government. It has sought employment for its members and other veterans. It has arranged military funerals for every body brought back from France."

To drive out worms that are eating away the strength and vitality of your child, use White's Cream Vermifuge. It expels the worms without injury to the child. Price 35c. Sold by Hensler & Story.

Love's Wages.
The wages of Love are small, so small
You scarce might know they were paid at all.
A glance, a smile, or the clasp of hands,
The coin of a heart that understands;
A name soft whispered, a lingered kiss,
The wages of Love are paid in this.
But oh, the magic such coin can buy—
The waking joy of a dawn-flushed sky,
Drudgery speeding on skylarks' wings,
Songs in the heartbeats of common things,
And firelit shadows of evening blent
With peace and comfort and all content.

The wages of Love are small, so small
One scarce could say that they cost at all.
Yet lives lonely, and hearts still ache
In bitter lack for the wee coins' sake;
And many a silk-clad life of ease
Would barter its purse of gold for these.

News From the Hospital

Mrs. Verda Cleveland of this city will undergo an operation for appendicitis this afternoon.

H. R. Whitson, who has been confined in the hospital for several days with blood poison in the left arm, is somewhat better at this time, but his case is still considered serious. It was necessary to lance his arm Thursday to relieve his suffering, and he has grown much better since.

T. O. Drummond, who underwent an operation for hernia, Monday, is doing nicely, and should be able to leave the hospital within a few days.

CROWDS OF HAPPY BUYERS COME TO SHAW'S DEPARTMENT STORE

In the Men's Clothing and Furnishings Department alone we had hundreds of customers Thursday, in the Shoe Department they came in throngs. Prices for quality merchandise were the appeal to good judgment which prompted the buying. And they will tell their friends of the wonderful values. In the Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Department the piercing of the price cuts is making itself felt with the reduction of stock in quantities that would surprise even wholesalers. Come and bring the youngsters to fit them, for we cannot exchange goods on these remarkable bargains.

WE ARE GONE.

On this the first day of the week we have assembled our rule book and figures of speech and are leaving for Oklahoma City to run the state legislature for the next several months. We have filled our trusty old valise with our best campaign gestures and otherwise prepared ourselves for any parliamentary eventuality. We know from past experience that it is some job to run the state, but feel that we are abundantly able to do so.

The new members of the legislature are already at the capitol. They went up last Monday. For seven days they have been practicing dodging through the revolving doors of the Skirvin hotel in order to acquire sufficient skill in that dangerous pastime to get through the aperture without losing the exposed portion of their pantaloons. This is the hardest task of new legislators and they do well to invade the capital city nine days before the organization is effected.

The legislature will be all right as soon as we get there. While they have been scrapping among themselves over Dearmon's bill requiring the application of air brakes to flying jennys and have been handing out fiery interviews to the Oklahoman and the Dallas News, we can assure you that everything will be pacified as soon as we arrive in the lobbies. We are going up to put the bunch to work and have hopes of teaching a majority of the boys how to sign the payroll by the time House Bill Number 1 has become a law.

We regret that our connection with the Evening News is terminated now for an indefinite season. We would like to continue on the editorial tripod handing out wisdom to the needy, but it is about all one man can do to run the state without the complication of running the Evening News as a sideline. Inasmuch as the state needs running a blamed sight worse than the Evening News does, we have decided to specialize in managing the state.

Therefore, adios!

LUTHER HARRISON.

THE LEGISLATURE MEETS.

The big organization of all of us in our government. It is above all others. The rules of its operation are fairly well defined in the constitution and the laws. Under these rules, the legislature of Oklahoma will meet early in January. Its chief job will be to determine how our money shall be spent by various state officers and state institutions during the next two years. Such things are based largely on precedents. Precedents to legislative bodies are similar to habits with individuals. The necessity for smashing at least one precedent is upon us.

County superintendents of public instruction met with city superintendents and others interested in educational affairs in Oklahoma City on December 11. State Superintendent Wilson presented some astounding figures which he has been gathering from county superintendents as to the number of school districts in which a limit-levy of 15 mills will not raise sufficient funds to maintain hitherto been the custom in these districts.

No reports had been received from Alfalfa, Cleveland, Major, Osage and Pittsburg counties. Reports from Canadian, Custer, Grant and Tulsa counties stated that no districts were without sufficient funds. Reports from the other 68 counties showed that 915 school districts with 186,292 children had levied the limit of 15 mills and did not have sufficient funds to conduct schools of the usual length of term.

At least a million dollars more will be needed by these school districts to pay the expenses of these schools for the usual length of term. It is not only the little, one-room country schools which need help. Many schools in villages and consolidated schools must have help, from the state treasury at once. And a million dollars from the state treasury will not enable these districts which have levied the limit of 15 mills to conduct schools for the full term of nine months, as the city schools did last year on an average levy of 11.8 mills.

If there's anything in this back-to-the-land stuff that professional educators and city folks keep preaching, this is a good chance to demonstrate.

The common schools of the state should be supported by state funds raised by uniform taxation upon all the property within the state.

What happened to the proposal for a 6-mill levy for school purposes abundantly demonstrated the impossibility of getting very far with an effort to make the state assume its duty to its children.

The job just ahead of us now is a very practical one. The legislature will very likely appropriate all the money in sight. Let's make sure that we get ours for the people's schools—the common schools—before state institutions get any.

A committee was appointed at the meeting of superintendents and it was instructed to work for an appropriation of one million dollars to be used in helping districts which levy the limit of 15 mills and do not have enough money to run their schools for the usual length of term.

Get the fact clearly fixed that this is one method of strengthening weak common schools which will not cost a single cent extra in taxes.

If country schools do not get this money, it will be spent for other purposes and you will have to pay the usual amount of taxes, just the same.

If you think that $340,000 spent for a stadium in which to perform athletic stunts at the state university, where 1,000 students may play, is more important than the giving of $340 to each of 1,000 public schools so that 186,292 boys and girls may have a chance to learn a little more, say nothing and do nothing.

The "friends of higher learning" will do it for you and to you, just as they have been doing for so long.—By John J. Fields.

A thousand old fashioned spinning wheels would do more to bring prosperity back to Oklahoma than ten thousand automobiles would.

Just two more seasons and it will be perfectly appropriate to refer to Eve as "the mother of fashions."

RECEPTION COMMITTEE FOR NEW YORK'S DEPORTED CRIMINAL SCUM—ANYWHERE ALONG THE LINE

Church News

First Baptist Church. The First Baptist Church had 461 present in Sunday school yesterday. They are fast climbing toward their goal of an average attendance of five hundred for 1921.

The house was packed at the morning hour of worship and chairs were used in the aisles. The pastor preached on the subject, "So-called Close Communion," to show that the Baptist position was only consistent. He quoted from several authorities of other denominations, among them, the American Presbyterian, as follows: "Let us have unity indeed, but not at the expense of principle; let us not ask the Baptists to ignore or to be inconsistent with his own doctrine. Let us not either make an outcry at his 'close communion' which is but faithfulness, until we are prepared to be open communists ourselves, from which stupidity, may we forever be preserved."

At the evening hour of worship, the B. Y. P. U. had charge of the service, and Miss Nora Wright presided in a most graceful manner. She introduced the new officers of the B. Y. P. U. for the new year and each in turn made a short talk.

Miss Opal Little is the president for next year and made a splendid talk in which she outlined some of her plans for the coming year.

Mr. Russell Boud sang in a most charming way, one of the B. Y. P. U. songs.

Mr. Riddle, general superintendent of the Sunday school, delivered an address in which he outlined some of the plans for the Sunday school for the coming year.

The program closed with a short talk by the pastor, in which he emphasized the importance of the B. Y. P. U. as a training service for young Christians, stating that the Sunday school is the training service of the church; the hour for worship, the preaching service of the church; and that the B. Y. P. U. is the training service of the church.

Monday evening at 7:30 there will be a Teachers and Workers Council at the church and every officer and teacher of the Sunday school is urged to be present and any others who are interested in Sunday school work.

The deacons will hold their monthly business meeting Tuesday evening at the church at 7 o'clock.

The church will have its monthly business meeting at the church on Wednesday evening. Matters of great importance are to be attended to and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members.

Boy Injured When Auto Strikes Iron Railing Sunday

Little J. C., the three year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Melton received several ugly cuts about the face when he was thrown through the windshield of an automobile Sunday afternoon.

The car was being driven north on Johnson avenue by John Ward, an inexperienced driver. Near Eighteenth street Mr. Ward had turned out of the road to pass another car and when he tried to turn the car back into the road the steering gear locked and caused the car to run into the iron railing of a concrete culvert.

The little boy was sitting in his father's lap in the front seat by the driver and the force of the sudden stop of the car threw him through the windshield. The worst cut was across the bridge of the nose. It required three stitches to hold the flesh in place, but no bad effects except an ugly scar are likely to result.

The car was running eight or ten miles an hour when the accident occurred. None of the other members of the party were injured and the car, a Ford sedan, was only slightly damaged.

Ada Boy May Not Be Able To Finish University Course

Hoyt Lewis who has been confined in the hospital for a week hemorrhaging from an ulcerated stomach is some better and it is thought that he will pull through without having to submit to an operation but the doctors are of the opinion that he will have to receive careful treatment for six months or a year.

Hoyt was taken sick while spending Christmas holiday season with his brother, Dr. M. L. Lewis. He has attended the University of Oklahoma for three years learning to be a geologist, and would have graduated in one more year. His sickness will prevent him finishing the course of study and will change his plans materially.

He had already made arrangements with a New York oil company to represent them in the oil fields of Old Mexico, and it has been necessary to cancel the agreement. When he gets well he may resume his studies and complete the course but this will depend upon the condition the disease leaves him in.

Three years in the university for a boy 20 years of age is a record that speaks well for the young man, and it is certainly a great misfortune to have such a promising career postponed or terminated by disease.

THE DIFFERENCE

"I SAW you coming up the street and standing at the gate with Mr. Honeybug and Mr. Playfair," said Mrs. Jamesworthy. "All three of you were laughing so the whole neighborhood could hear you. I wonder why you do all the laughing with your friends, and do nothing but grumble and scowl at home. I haven't seen you laugh in the house in five years, as you laughed out there with those men."

"There's nothing in this house to laugh at," replied Jamesworthy. "Jim Honeybug is a good story-teller, and he was telling us a bully yarn, and for a brief season we forgot the burdens laid upon us, which are greater than we can bear. If you could tell a story as well as Honeybug does, I'd fill these ancestral halls with silvery laughter, but you never try to say anything amusing, Mrs. Jamesworthy. You do tell stories, but they are of a gloomy and tragic character."

"Last night, when I came home, you told a dramatic story to the effect that you had callers all afternoon, and hadn't a chance to cook anything for me, and so I had to eat canned salmon and soda crackers, and wash them down with water, and I insist that when a husband comes home from his arduous labors in the clanging mart, so empty that his watch chain makes a clanking sound when it flaps against his spine, he should have warm victuals, something he can consume with pleasure and pride. The fact that you had an invasion of callers is a cheap excuse."

"My sainted mother never would have permitted any callers to interfere with her management of the cook-stove. She realized that her old man kept the shebang going, and that he should have the right of way. If any old hens happened to be in the house when grub time approached, my mother would request them, firmly but respectfully, to chase themselves, and if they didn't like it they could lump it. When my father came home from his work, the hay was always in the manger for him, and he never had to wait five minutes for a meal."

"The day before yesterday, when I came staggering home, faint and weary from my herculean efforts to make both ends meet, you told me another story. It was to the effect that you had been downtown sizing up a shipment of new spring hats, just received at the millinery foundry, and you were so interested you forgot the lapse of time, and didn't get home in time to cook anything. But you flashed a winning smile at me, and said it wouldn't take you ten minutes to warm up a can of beans, and there was some cold coffee left from breakfast, and you had plenty of smoked herrings on hand."

"Doubtless I should have burst forth into boisterous laughter over this entertaining anecdote, but somehow it didn't appeal to my sense of humor. I was so busy that day I hadn't time to eat anything at noon, and all the way home I was hoping you would have a porterhouse steak about three inches thick, and a raft of boiled potatoes, and perhaps a slab of mince pie as an epilogue."

"The day before that, when I came home as hollow as a bass drum, and fairly gnashing my teeth with hunger, you related a humorous story to the effect that your club didn't adjourn on time that afternoon, and you didn't get home until late, so I would have to get along with a pickled-up supper. If I would be patient a few minutes, you said, to make the story seem more spicy, you would boil an egg for me, and there was cold corn bread in the cupboard."

"Such stories, Mrs. Jamesworthy, may seem highly amusing to an innocent bystander, and I have no doubt they would make a great hit if written up and printed in London Punch, but there is something wrong with my sense of humor, or I am at the wrong end of the stories. Anyhow, I can't gurgie over them as I do over Honeybug's yarns."

NO MEN WANTED' OKMULGEE LADY CO. CLERK SAYS

(By the Associated Press)
OKMULGEE, Okla., Jan. 20.—"No men wanted."

This was the stipulation made here recently when Mrs. Grace E. Morton, county clerk, announced that she had a vacancy in her office to fill.

In commenting on her ruling against men, Mrs. Morton declared that men were not as dependable nor as speedy as the girls in routine work, and that she would continue her ban on men which she has followed since she entered office two years ago.

"We seem to be getting along all right," Mrs. Morton said, when told that she was possibly the only woman county clerk in the state who drew the deadline on men applicants for positions.

THE KING OF THE CORN AND HIS REIGN OF MERCY

"Believe in the divine right of kings I never shall, except in the divine right to be kingly men, which all men share; but truly a divine right lies for any man in the ownership of a comfortable barn in winter. It is the feudal castle of the farm to the lower animals, who dwell in the Dark Ages of their kind—dwell on and on in affection, submission and trust, while their lord demands of them their labor, their substance, or their life."

"Of a winter's day, when these poor, dumb creatures have been scattered over the portionless earth, how often lift up their voices with cries for they look toward this fortress and night to come; the horses, raised and shivering, with their tails to the wind, as they snap their frosted fodder, or paw through the rime to the frozen grass underneath, causing their icy fetlocks to rattle about their hoofs; the cattle, crowded to leeward of some deep-buried haystack, the exposed side of the outermost of them white with whirling flakes; the sheep turning their pitiful, trusting eyes about them over the fields of storm in earth and sky!"

"What joy at nightfall to gather them home to food and warmth and rest! If there is ever a time when I feel myself a medieval lord to trustworthy vassals, it is then. Of a truth I pass entirely over the Middle Ages, joining my life to the most ancient dwellers of the plains and becoming a simple father of flocks and herds."

"When they have been duly stabled according to their kinds, I climb to the crib in the barn and create a great landslide of fat ears that is like laughter; and then from every stall what a hearty, healthy chorus of cries and petitions responds to the laughter of the corn! What squeals and grunts persuasive beyond the realms of rhetoric! What a blowing of mellow horns from the cows! And the quick nostril trumpet-call of the horse! how dependent, yet how commanding! As I mount to the top of the pile, if I ever felt myself a royal personage, it is then; I ascend my throne; I am king of the corn; and there is not a brute peasant in my domain that does not worship me as a ruler of heaven and earth."

"Or I love to catch up the bundles of oats as they are thrown down from the loft and send them whirling through the cutting-box so fast that they pour into the big baskets like streams of melted gold; or, grasping my pitchfork, I stuff the ricks over the mangers with the rich, aromatic hay until I am as warm as when I loaded the wagons with it at midsummer noons."

"With what sweet sounds and odors now the whole barn is filled! How robust, clean, and well-meaning are my thoughts! In what comfort of mind I can turn to my own roof and store."—Progressive Farmer.

Woman—

Your system often revolts against the burdens Nature imposes upon you. The trials and duties of the exacting age rapidly undermine your constitution and weaken your body, leaving you frequently "out or sorts."

You accept it as your right and because old practices offer little relief that you care to try.

You can be strong, healthy and happy. Your system which is affected by disturbed nerve function can be restored to normal, and then Nature will do its part in building up your system—all through simple Chiropractic corrects the cause of your peculiar ills by adjusting the subluxation (displacement) of the vertebrae and releasing the interference from your nerves. Acute and chronic cases are all handled in Nature's own way; operation, drugs and all instruments are avoided.

MAY ORGANIZE OVER COUNTY

Vanoss and Fitzhugh Open for Scout Troops.

The prospects of organizing a troop of scouts at Vanoss and one at Fitzhugh are good according to a report of the scout executive, Mr. Miller, who visited the schools at those places this week.

At both places he was cordially welcomed and the principals, Mr. White of Fitzhugh and Hayes of Vanoss, were anxious to help him in organizing the troops. About 17 boys in each place expressed themselves as wanting to join and the parents were also ready to help the movement.

The only trouble met with was the securing of scout masters but he is confident of getting them.

At a meeting of the local council last Friday morning it was decided to give the members of the Band Troop part of their uniforms. The coat and pants were selected as the articles which will be given them free and the boys will have to buy the other part of the suits.

The number of the troop is limited to thirty and they will be under the supervision of Mr. Hill of the High school faculty until the close of school.

ANNOUNCEMENTS TO BE MADE AT GAME

Here To Spread Doctrine of True Americanism

From the ranks of the bolsheviks to one hundred present Americanism. That's the record of Fighting Doc Ladd, who is in Ada today and tomorrow spreading the doctrine of true Americanism. Dr. Ladd spoke to a crowd at Broadway and Main streets this afternoon, and will speak again tomorrow afternoon. He comes as a representative of the United American league of Illinois, and is recommended to the people of this city by Governor J. B. A. Robertson.

After touring the country with Emma Goldman, fighting the government and all its backers, Ladd, then a convict in a Boston prison, was handed a Bible and there he read, found that he was wrong and changed over. Thus he introduces himself as he goes over the state speaking against bolshevism and its kindred organizations.

Ladd, who is a returned soldier and an American legion member has just come from Salina, Kans., where he assisted in organizing the fight against Townsleyism.

The United Americans have an avowed purpose of spreading the gospel of true patriotism among the masses of people.

Some of Ladd's statements are: "A bolshevik is a dish washer who hasn't the guts to become a cook."

"A socialist is a bum who hasn't anything but is willing to divide that."

"Every time I see a red danger flag flying from a sewer hole I think it is bolshevism headquarters."

"There is enough red in the stars and stripes for me. If there is not enough for you go back to the country from which you came. If you have no country then you may as well go on to—"

Two Robberies At Fitzhugh Last Night

Sheriff Duncan was notified today of two robberies which were committed at Fitzhugh last night.

Two men entered the home of a blacksmith and covered the man with their guns, taking $5 in money, a suit of clothes and about one hundred dollars worth of auto tools.

Sometime during the night the Anthony grocery store was entered, and robbed of a quantity of apples and $20 in cash.

It is thought that both robberies were committed by the same parties, and the officers are on the look-out for them.

Why I Live in Ada

By C. R. Jackson, 618 N. 15th St.

I live in Ada because it is the judicial seat of Pontotoc county, with a population of 9,000, a prosperous, enterprising and thriving manufacturing city, located on the St. Louis and San Francisco railway, M. K. & T. railway and A. T. & S. F. Railway; 85 miles southeast of Oklahoma City and 90 miles north of Denison, Texas.

Ada is a city of substantial business blocks and modern homes, paved streets and complete sewerage system, unlimited supply of spring water served to the entire city and unlimited quantities of natural gas. Ada has an annual pay roll of $2,500,000.00. Among the industrial feature are five cotton gins, a $2,500,000 Portland Cement plant, large glass factory cotton oil mill, cotton compress, ice factory, brick and tile plant, flour mill, bottling works, canning factory, planing mill, four wholesale grocery houses, two produce firms, ice cream factory and creamery. The schools are, a state Normal, one high school, and five ward schools. There are eight churches of the leading denominations. As a financial center Ada is well represented by five strong and conservative banks. The city is booming and offers a fine opportunity for safe investment. Ada is the coming oil town.
